Set in the lower section of Los Frailes, this 1,750 square meter lot (approximately 18,837 square feet) offers an opportunity to create a home where architecture, landscape, and outdoor living come together naturally.Its rectangular layout and level terrain lend themselves to a thoughtfully designed single-story residence, with living spaces opening onto gardens, generous terraces, and a swimming pool integrated into the landscape. The lot's ample size allows for comfortable entertaining areas and private retreats while preserving substantial green space. A two-story design could incorporate an upper terrace with potential views of the reservoir.Established mesquite trees and native cacti give the property a distinctive sense of place and provide a foundation for landscaping that complements its surroundings. The lot is clean and well maintained, with water and electricity available for connection.Beyond the railroad tracks, life takes on a quieter pace. Sunshine, native birds, and a peaceful setting...
