Rancho Hadas Madrinas

ID: 2674 Price: $ 1,800,000 USD

Waking up each morning with the coolness of the morning air on my skin is like a sensual symphony .The rest of the music is provided by the crowing rooster, the birds singing their morning songs to each other and all the insects talking to one another. All this happens before the sun peaks in between the Quail mountain range. I have been able to create a natural wildlife sanctuary providing them with fences, natural grasses, flowers and water features. In return they reward me with their presence
