Step inside from Calle Hernández Macías and discover Casa de Oro, an architectural wonder perfectly blending ancient stone walls with cutting-edge steel and glass architecture in the very heart of San Miguel de Allende.Legend has it that centuries ago, while digging the foundations of this property, builders literally struck gold. That fortunate discovery sparked a vibrant tradition of artisanal jewelry-making along this historic block. Over the years, the space evolved from a master silversmith's workshop into a celebrated boutique for visionary local fashion, before undergoing its latest, most breathtaking transformation: a turnkey masterpiece, thoughtfully designed with the discerning buyer in mind.Every corner of Casa de Oro balances centuries-old character with effortless modern luxury. Rich historic textures and original stone walls serve as a dramatic backdrop for sleek contemporary design and thoughtful modern upgrades, creating an atmosphere that is both deeply authentic and undeniably...
