While it is new construction, Casa Terracotta's charm is accentuated by the Mexican architectural features of a corner fireplace, boveda ceilings, balconies, art niches and a cantera fountain. An on-demand hot water system and solar panels on the roof add to the energy efficiency of this home. Casa Terracotta is a lovely 3 bedroom home with 3.5 bathrooms, 3 terraces and secured off-street parking. Located in a gated and guarded community, this home offers a sweeping panoramic view of Centro and the neighboring mountains and is only a 20-minute walk to El Jardin.
