Talking about Antigua Residencial is talking about Quality, Good Design, Good Price and Responsible Condominium Development. Each and every one of their houses is built with attention to detail. After what has been said, the photographs speak of the house called Zafiro Plus. Current design on the first level conveniently integrating living room, dining room, kitchen and patio and the small side corridor that leads to the garden directly from the street. Natural light and wind flow in an extraordinary way throughout the first floor and in all the bedrooms, essential elements in any healthy property. Each and every one of
