This house represents perfectly the San Miguel de Allende style. You can not possibly imagine what wonders you can find behind this purple little door. This house is full of surprises, starting with a 360 view from the master bedroom, literally, every window appears to be a perfect photograph of the most iconic places in San Miguel, you will open your eyes every morning to a perfect portrait of the San Miguel Arcangel Parish. And if you are looking for outdoor spaces, this house has everything, a charming courtyard to enjoy coffee in the mornings, the most beautiful terraces outside the bedrooms that invite you to drink a glass of wine or enjoy the view with an interesting book, and the best
