Located in Historic Centro on the charming street of Quebrada, this home is only a few minutes or less to restaurants, juice bars, gardens, historic churches, shopping, museums and the library to name a few. The central Jardin and Parroquia are only three blocks away. Returning home one can take historic steps of the Canal Street bridge and treasure the fact you are steps away to your front door – a large antique wood door encased by Cantera stone that is centuries old. Inside is a parking space for a small car, a lofty private courtyard with stone walls and cantera stone over the entry doors. Glass French doors open to the courtyard from the large kitchen and
