Impressive “Pueblo Revival” style residence that would transport you to a previous era, if it weren't for the fact that it has all the services, luxuries and systems of modern life. Rustic and modern come together in perfect combination. You will first pass through an automatic gate where you will find a garden/parking lot with space for a dozen cars. When you head towards the house, a stone fountain will surprise you. Go around it and you will find the entrance door. A very spacious living-dining room with warm tones and natural materials will welcome you. High ceilings covered in fine wood,
