Casa Cantera, designed and built by re-known San Miguel architect Ana Delia López, is located in Centro on Quebrada Street, where there are wonderful neighborhood restaurants and an easy 8-minute flat walk to the Jardin. This two bedroom and two and a half bathroom home has a nice layout with all living areas evenly distributed with interior patios between each area. Walk into a vestibule upon entering the home and before opening the front door. Then once inside the home, you will enter the living room with fireplace. The dining room is large enough to fir six people at the table. An interior patio with a cascading rock wall
