Great option for those who want to enjoy the independence neighborhood. This is a house built in the late 90's with colonial Mexican touches like vaults throughout the house and tiles in the kitchen and bathrooms, as well as the clay floors. Its double height in the room makes it have a special charm since it seems to have great potential for beauty and display in that area. It is a very spacious two-bedroom house with one of them on the ground floor. It has an open concept in the kitchen and dining room which gives a lot of space. It has garage space for a very large car or probably two medium ones lined up. This area of Independencia is ideal for its accessibility either through the
