Surrounded by mature trees on this quiet street that leads to the Botanical Gardens, this elegant and modern home has Spanish colonial accents including hand carved Cantera fireplaces and architectural antique doors. Perfect for entertaining, the entry hall opens to two spacious living rooms and a dining area with soaring 2 story ceilings framed with rustic white stone walls. An expansive glass wall is cut and fitted to the stone allowing integrated indoor and outdoor space while a Cantera fireplace provides warmth and soft light at night. The kitchen has glass tile and all the modern appliances surround by warm dark wood custom cabinetry. The
