Located on a lovely cobblestone street in Historic Centro is Casa Adele, a three bedroom, three and a half bathroom lovely Mexican colonial style home. Directly across the narrow street is the Capilla de Calvario built in 1753. Entering the home you will find a den area to the left, perfect for reading or relaxing. The open concept living room and dining room area with a fireplace serving both areas is spacious and light-filled. The beautifully tiled kitchen is reminiscent of one that can be found in an old hacienda. A half bathroom completes the interior of this level. Just outside of the living room and dining room area a
