Perched on the border of the ever-popular neighborhood of Guadiana on the corner of a popular cul-de-sac populated by expats, Casa DeeDee actually enjoys a long south-facing façade fronting Cinco de Mayo, enjoying plentiful light year-round and sun in the winter months. An open-plan great room spills onto the covered terrace the width of the home which then flows into the sunny fountain-anchored courtyard with abundant landscaping. The beautiful boveda-ceiling kitchen offers a bar opening to the dining room and two pantry areas, with direct access to the laundry area. The oversized off-street parking—secured but not
