Living in a vineyard is a unique and enriching experience that combines the tranquility of rural life with the natural beauty of the wine-growing landscapes. Tranquility and Nature: Living in a vineyard means being surrounded by the serenity of the countryside, with vast landscapes of vineyards stretching as far as the eye can see. The fresh air, the sounds of nature, and the changing colors of the seasons create a relaxing and revitalizing environment. Connection to Earth: Every day in a vineyard offers the opportunity to connect deeply with the land and plants. Participating in the annual cycle of vine cultivation, from pruning in winter to harvesting in autumn, makes you feel
