The Insurgentes Fractionation in San Miguel de Allende is a residential area located on the outskirts of the city. San Miguel de Allende is known for its colonial architecture, rich history, and vibrant arts scene. The Insurgentes Fractionation is located a few minutes from the historic center of San Miguel, which makes it an attractive option for those who want to live close to the city's amenities but in a quieter environment. Since subdivisions typically have different sections and stages of development, you may find variety in the types of properties available in the Insurgentes Fractionation, such as houses, land to build on, and perhaps some condominiums.
