Situated in the center of San Miguel de Allende, Calvario 4 – D5 is part of an exclusive selection of six residences, each carefully crafted to honor the character and legacy of this remarkable city. The building's vibrant, colorful exterior draws from Mexico's colonial architecture, capturing the enduring charm of San Miguel's historic roots. This coveted location places you right at the threshold of the lively historic district, where local coffee shops, art galleries, artisan markets, and the magnificent Parroquia de San Miguel Arcángel are just a leisurely walk away, making it perfect for anyone eager to dive into the spirit of the city.
