Welcome to Hotel Casa Luna. Upon entering you immediately experience the old world colonial grandeur this property exudes. On the ground floor level, spread out over the 1067 m² of land, you will pass six ensuite rooms, all with fireplaces, separated by three courtyard gardens. The kitchen and office are also on this level. The kitchen serviced the hotel clients but at one time was also used by a restaurant open to the general public. The rear courtyard is large enough to easily add an additional six suites or a SPA?swimming pool. On the next level up there are nine ensuite units, most having private terraces/fireplaces. It is perfectly located on Calle Quebrada making it an easy five minute walk to
