Tucked away on the prestigious Diez de Sollano y Dávalos, one of San Miguel de Allende's most sought-after and picturesque streets, Sollano 44 is a true southern belle—graceful, refined, and rich in character. This beautifully appointed residence features a two-bedroom main house with the flexibility of a third bedroom or studio, as well as a spacious one-bedroom apartment discreetly situated at the rear of the property—ideal for guests or rental income.
