Casa de la Soñadora – Timeless Charm in the Heart of San Miguel Just a ten-minute stroll down a picturesque cobblestone street from the Jardín, Casa de la Soñadora blends the warmth of traditional Mexican colonial architecture with elegant touches inspired by Spain, North Africa, and Indonesia. This lovely three-bedroom, two-bathroom residence offers all the features buyers seek in a San Miguel home: single-level living if desired, a central location, a lush garden, a rooftop terrace with spectacular city views, a carport, and timeless architectural details.
