Nestled in the heart of El Paraíso, an enclave near the vibrant life of San Miguel de Allende. This isn't just a house; it's a beautiful blend of French-Grecian elegance, where the warmth of rustic charm meets contemporary comfort. As you approach along the cobblestone street, the facade warmly beckons. Climbing bougainvillea, coupled with custom-made hanging glass and iron lanterns, paints a picture of timeless beauty—a hint of what lies within. Stepping inside, the grand entrance envelops you. Handkerchief boveda ceilings, an intricately hand-carved cantera mantel, beautifully
