Casa Naranja offers two en-suite bedrooms as well as a versatile independent studio ideal for creative work, reading, an office, or an atelier. The walls, painted in warm, deep tones, interact with the natural light at different times of day, generating plays of shadow that transform each space. The views and cross-ventilation provide a constant sense of freshness, while the understated materials and balanced proportions reinforce a serene and elegant lifestyle. Every detail has been carefully considered to create an urban refuge, a true oasis within the San Rafael neighborhood near the iconic Tacos Don Felix restaurant where
