Casa Limen is inspired by the spatial logic of traditional Mexican casonas, where daily life revolves around a central courtyard. This courtyard connects visually and functionally to the entire house and is anchored by the pool, becoming the core from which the home is experienced and shared. The home features a primary bedroom on the ground floor and three additional bedrooms on the upper level, all with full bathrooms, independent mini-split air conditioning, and direct outdoor access. Two open onto private balconies with views toward the Parroquia and San Miguel de Allende's Historic Center, while another extends onto a spacious
