Quiet cul-de-sac tucked into the edge of a canyon at the end of the curve sits a single-level home, designed to blend into the landscape of a lush filled canyon where tiny hummingbirds appear, darting from one native flowering plant to another or the colorful feeders that hang outside. The house stretches into a wide driveway making it an easy access. Native plants line the path as you step outside and are greeted by a garden that overlooks the canyon. Inside, the layout is open and intuitive. The front door leads directly into a bright living space where large windows frame the canyon and distant greenery. The kitchen flows
