Portions of this home date back some several hundred years, and the original thick stones walls and old-fashioned wood beamed ceilings of the entry and living areas communicate authentic Centro. Multiple garden patios and terraces provide additional living space, charm and lush greenery. Upstairs features two spacious master suites and two additional bedrooms. The large rooftop terrace is fully covered, boasts incredible views, and comes equipped with a mini-kitchen and fire pit. Tasteful furnishings which truly complement the colonial style of this home are included.
