Beauty comfort and uniqueness is Casa Zenaida. Sophisticated combination of the old and the new. The home dates back around 200 years old. However, all electric and plumbing was redone a year ago by some of the best builders and designers in San Miguel. The seller has an amazing eye for design and worked well with the builder to create a zen like energy throughout the home. This historical masterpiece has three very private bedrooms and baths, plus a powder room for guests.
