"If you would like to enjoy nature and at the same time be near the wonderful town of San Miguel de Allende where all the art, culture and world class restaurants await you. This place is for you at the end of a dirt road just fifteen minutes from town... You would have incredible views to enjoy the sunsets from your private sheltered terrace. You would have some friendly neighbours not to feel isolated, but at the same time all your privacy. It would be an ideal retreat for an artist. It includes water and electricity by rainwater catchment and a solar electric system. High speed Internet is available. $500 USD/month for one person only. "Month to month, or larger time."
