Distant from the growing agitation of downtown San Miguel, this house offers the outdoor albeit soothing experience you've been looking for. With a contemporary Mexican design it ventures you into a handcrafted paradise, presenting not only a fresh perspective, but establishing a new standard for what living in the outskirts of this enchanting town encompasses. It contains an accessible entrance into the house; five wondrous bedrooms, each with its own full bathroom; a garage; a garden area upon a small hill just behind the house; a cozy living room; a connection to the lake which lies on the edge of the site; a dazzling view looking into the scenery of Guanajuato's
