This beautiful seven bedroom light filled residence is situated in front of La Conchita Park in the prestigious estate section of Los Frailes on a rare, triple sized corner lot. Built by Hernandez Architects, which are known for their fine distinctive custom homes, their style defines the original Los Frailes development. Designed for the owner's family, great attention to detail was paid using only the highest quality materials combined with the finest in Mexican craftsmanship. Solid mesquite doors, customized embossed tiles from the Pueblo Magico town of Dolores Hidalgo, parquet wood floors, lighted nichos, and numerous balconies with
