In the heart of historic San Miguel de Allende on a quiet, short cul-de-sac street only a six-minute stroll to the Jardin—our town square—sits Casa Nostra Familia, literally Our Family Home! This magnificent fully renovated and updated Spanish Colonial home by renowned architect Pedro Urquiza is the ideal setting for those extended family holidays together, three generations under one roof, all with room for privacy and separation, especially with the separate full-home casita! Casa Nostra Familia boasts the finest of finishes throughout: cantera stone flooring, beamed and stenciled-tile ceilings, boveda ceilings, custom wood doors with beveled glass windows, Jali-screen carvings over several windows, custom brass and cantera sinks, vanishing screens throughout, seven ornate carved cantera fireplaces, custom hardware...nothing was overlooked, nothing missed an update. A grand dauphine fountain anchors the entry courtyard before guests arrive at a formal foyer, radiating into the enormous living room. The...
