Corner Property in San Antonio – Calle Libertad 2 Located in the heart of Colonia San Antonio, one of San Miguel's most traditional and sought-after neighborhoods, this property offers charm, potential, and an unbeatable location. Just a 15-minute walk from the Parroquia of San Miguel Arcángel, it sits on the corner of Libertad and Esperanza Streets, with entrances on both sides. This two-story home is built in the classic San Miguel style, with thick brick-and-concrete walls and a layout that adapts beautifully to the slope of the land, creating different levels and offering picturesque views of town. The ground floor features a living room, two bedrooms, a kitchen, and a bathroom, while the upper level includes a bedroom, living room, dining room, kitchen, and another bathroom. A spacious rooftop provides additional possibilities, from creating a roof garden to designing an entertainment space with views. The property also includes a two-car garage — a rare advantage in this central neighborhood. With its solid...
