Welcome to the architectural masterpiece of Casa Lagerfeld, a one-of-a-kind residence located in historic San Miguel de Allende. Inspired by Karl Lagerfeld's famed Villa la Vigie, this magnificent estate sits on a prime hillside location, offering breathtaking views of Centro and the iconic Parroquia. With its unique design and extraordinary craftsmanship, Casa Lagerfeld is a true testament to luxury living. The home features exquisite finishes, including custom hand-troweled wall textures, stenciled floors, Etruscan-inspired murals, groin-vaulted ceilings, intricate antique Indian wood carvings, and custom cantera stonework. Additional highlights include raised-relief tile designs, built-in cabinetry, and stunning fireplaces. Among them is a remarkable Biedermeier-style fireplace crafted by renowned artisan Manuel Padron, a project that took over a year to complete. Every detail of this home reflects meticulous artistry and unparalleled elegance. Designed for effortless living, the primary spaces are located on a...
