Set within Malanquín Country Club—the oldest and most established golf community in town—Casa Diana offers a lifestyle shaped by openness, comfort, and genuine warmth. Here, the setting feels inviting rather than manufactured, creating the perfect backdrop for anyone seeking an effortless and authentic Country Club experience. Entering from the street, you arrive at an open-air vestibule, with the garage to your right. Inside, the main level unfolds smoothly: a half bath to the left, an open kitchen to the right, and the living and dining area just ahead. From the moment you step inside, your view carries straight across the home, out toward the adjacent rooftop terrace, and beyond to the lake and sunset. The kitchen area is generously planned, featuring a full-size pantry, a dedicated laundry room, and a service patio that keeps daily functionality discreet and organized. On this same level, the main suite sits on the far right for privacy. It enjoys the same sweeping vistas, a walk-in closet, and...
