18th-Century Historic Residence in the Heart of San Miguel de AllendeLocated in the very heart of San Miguel de Allende, Casa de la Canal is a truly one-of-a-kind residence, originally built in 1717, that preserves and celebrates its colonial heritage through authentic architecture and a carefully curated design.Upon entering, the home welcomes you with a colonial courtyard centered around an original fountain and framed by historic arches that reveal the property's age and character.Lush, colorful vegetation creates a fresh, intimate, and deeply inviting atmosphere.The main house features four bedrooms and four and a half bathrooms, adorned with hand-painted tiles, as well as an elegant library-living room with a mezzanine, decorated in a refined Moroccan style highlighted by star-patterned ceilings. Each space is furnished with antique pieces, thoughtfully selected to complement the home's historic character. Embedded plaques confirm that the residence was built by the De la Canal family, a wealthy and...
