Discover an event venue for sale in San Miguel de Allende, offering spacious grounds, serene privacy, and a warm architectural character just minutes from the city center. This property provides an ideal setting for family gatherings, private celebrations, or social events, with open areas that flow naturally into a beautifully landscaped garden. The expansive covered terrace, supported by traditional columns and illuminated with charming lantern-style fixtures, creates a versatile setting for event furniture, service stations, or lounge seating—all seamlessly connected to the garden. The central patio and mature landscaping offer a natural, inviting atmosphere that enhances any type of celebration. Designed for comfort and convenience, the property features two half bathrooms, an outdoor kitchen, and a dedicated grilling area, making it effortless to host guests. The generous layout allows for the installation of dining areas, children's inflatables, recreational setups, or custom event designs, while...
