Nestled in the countryside village of Los Lopez on the road to Cieneguita, is this lovely property currently being used as an artist's studio and home. There are two large 1-bedroom casitas complete with kitchens and ensuite baths. Each building offers lots of storage and both have views of the countryside and Presa Allende from the 2nd story balconies. There is a third separate structure that is currently being used as an large artist studio. The structures are made of a thermal stone block for year-round comfort. And there are hiking trails to enjoy the nearby Presa Allende and forests in the area. The property is connected to the community well and CFE is connected, so you have the creature comforts of town and the beauty of the country.
