Enclosed within garden walls and set on a generous landscaped lot, this new colonial-style home offers privacy, charm, and flexible living spaces throughout. A cantera-framed entryway with a balcony above welcomes you inside to an inviting foyer, where built-in display niches create an elegant spot for art.To the right, the dining room flows into an open kitchen, creating a comfortable space for everyday living and entertaining. Beyond, a spacious living room centered on a cantera fireplace opens to the back patio, bringing in natural light and strengthening the connection to the garden.The ground floor features a generously sized primary suite with a full en-suite bath with bathtub, along with extensive custom wood cabinetry providing abundant storage and closet space. This level also includes a guest half bath, an artist's studio, and a laundry room with direct access to the garden.A bright stairway off the entry, illuminated by a tall window, leads to the second floor, which functions well as an independent living area.
