Welcome to your peaceful, modern country retreat—a warm and inviting 2-bedroom home designed to offer the perfect blend of comfort, style, and tranquility. Nestled in the heart of nature, this one-floor living space is ideal for those looking for a cozy, hassle-free home where modern amenities meet rustic charm. The home's exterior features a harmonious balance of traditional and contemporary design. A simple yet elegant glass, metal & stone facade blends seamlessly with natural wood accents, creating an earthy feel that complements the surrounding landscape. Large windows, framed with iron, invite in plenty of natural light and offer sweeping views of the countryside. A spacious porch complete with an outdoor barbecue and dining area provides the perfect spot to unwind at the end of the day while soaking in the surrounding views. Upon entering, you are welcomed by an open-concept living space, designed to create a sense of flow and connection between rooms. The heart of the home is the living room, where...
