One- of - a Kind A unique, jewel box villa nestled in a lush secret oasis in the premier corner of historic centro, Casa Lala reflects the architectural charms of Mexico, but never nods to cliches. Industrial steel and glass doors soar to high beamed ceilings and flood the house in light.Hand plastered walls reflect craftsmenship of native artisans. Surprise glass floor balconies, windows in showers and a miniature boveda ceilings emerge unexpectedly. Quality of workmanship is evident throughout in the many details that take time to be discovered. Designed by Rela Gleason and featured in Elle Decor, the home is being offered turn key fully furnished and equipped.Fine antiques, original commissioned art, custom furnishings and a grand piano are eye candy, but comfort and functionality are not sacrificed. A gourmet kitchen with a dining alcove and fireplace overlooks the courtyard with swimming pool and spa. 7 additional fireplaces (3 woodburning) add charm and warmth to each of the three air-conditioned bedroom...
