Welcome to this majestic residence, highlighted by a striking wrought-iron staircase, vibrant stained-glass windows, and refined stone finishes throughout. The home features a gourmet granite kitchen and custom closets adorned with exquisite hand-carved wooden doors, complemented by graceful fountains both indoors and outdoors. One bedroom is conveniently located on the ground floor, while two additional bedrooms occupy the upper level. Crowning the home is a covered rooftop terrace offering breathtaking mountain views. At the front of the property, a spacious and lush garden unfolds with fruit trees, flowering plants, and aromatic herbs, creating a serene outdoor retreat. A shaded seating area, framed by elegant white Mediterranean-style statues, invites relaxation. Adding exceptional versatility, the property also includes a fully independent casita-style apartment featuring one bedroom, kitchen, dining area, living room, and a private terrace.
