Casa BarrancaA Sophisticated Jewel in the Heart of San Miguel de AllendeAlong one of San Miguel de Allende's charming cobblestone streets and just a short walk from the iconic Parroquia, Casa Barranca is an outstanding residence that beautifully marries the elegance and sophistication of modern living and traditional Mexican colonial architecture.From the moment you step inside, the home reveals a world of refined craftsmanship, warmth, and character. Rich architectural details, inviting living spaces, and an effortless connection to the outdoors create an atmosphere that is both elegant and welcoming.A gracious entry parlor leads into the heart of the home: a light-filled living area and a beautifully appointed chef's kitchen designed for both everyday living and effortless entertaining. Expansive west-facing windows span the length of the living space, bathing the interiors in natural light and framing breathtaking views of the lush garden beyond. At its center stands a magnificent Jacaranda tree believed to be...
