Every detail of its construction and decoration was thought to highlight the beauty of its peculiarities, which although for some could have been considered defects, the talent of those who knew how to recognize them as potential virtues turned it into an oasis in the middle of the city, every centimeter has been perfectly used to enjoy and marvel. Upon entering, a long corridor leads to two cozy rooms, each with its own bathroom, separated by a picturesque patio with a fountain, in this there are stairs that lead to the upper floor where the dining room and a beautiful traditional-looking kitchen are located. with contemporary finishes that make it special. A second flight of stairs leads to a study surrounded by large windows that reveal the best part of this property, a terrace with a Jacuzzi that is surrounded by an impressive landscape of the city. The unique sky of San Miguel is shown in all its splendor from this magnificent spot. The privileged location of this residence is another of its qualities, it is located...
