A countryside retreat with Mexican characterLess than 10 minutes from the center of San Miguel de Allende, this traditional Mexican-style property offers a countryside living experience while remaining close to the city. The access road is straightforward, and the surroundings are defined by open landscapes and views toward the mountains.The main house retains the warmth of regional architecture, with spaces arranged in a practical layout. On the ground floor, three bedrooms each have their own bathroom, providing comfort and privacy on a single level. Upstairs, a fourth bedroom also features a private bathroom and opens onto a terrace and a balcony overlooking the surrounding mountains.In addition to the main house, the property includes a separate guest house with two bedrooms and one bathroom. This additional space can be useful for hosting visitors, as staff quarters, or for any other purpose that may arise.The land spans 6,000 m^2, allowing for a spacious garden and plenty of outdoor...
