Casa Prisma This expansive residence reflects elements of prominent contemporary Mexican architecture. From its foundations to its finishes, every detail demonstrates exceptional quality. Located in a secure and tranquil countryside development, the property offers the charm of living close to nature with picturesque views of Los Picachos, a small mountain range near San Miguel. At the same time, it is less than a 5-minute drive from the city's largest shopping center, banks, hospitals, schools, vineyards, golf courses, and all the amenities of modern life. The home is a single-story design, making it both convenient and easy to maintain. Its high ceilings enhance the sense of spaciousness, while a beautiful central courtyard anchors the social areas, bringing light and life into the home. The courtyard features a carved stone fountain and a beautiful weeping willow tree, creating an inviting and elegantly designed space. Natural ventilation and abundant light flow throughout the house, making it airy and bright....
