California-Inspired Luxury Living with Exceptional Entertaining Spaces From its generous proportions and double-height interiors to its private pool terrace and expansive rooftop, the home is designed around the way people actually want to live—gathering with friends, hosting family, enjoying indoor-outdoor living, and retreating to beautifully appointed private spaces. The heart of the home is an expansive double-height living and dining area, anchored by a wood-burning fireplace and flowing naturally into a sophisticated open-concept kitchen. Designed for serious entertaining, the kitchen combines natural and sintered stone surfaces, a large island with seating for eight, and a dining area accommodating up to eight guests. Premium TEKA appliances, custom cabinetry with soft-close hardware, and a fully equipped laundry room complete this highly functional space. The residence offers five bedrooms and five full bathrooms, providing exceptional flexibility for family living, extended stays, or...
