Casa AdelaidaDesigned for real life, Casa Adelaida is a welcoming San Miguel home that lives larger than its footprint, with flexible indoor and outdoor spaces, a mature garden, and a completely independent casita.Warm, distinctly Mexican and shaped by years of real life, Casa Adelaida has the character of a home created to be lived in. The three-bedroom main house makes thoughtful use of every space. Each upstairs bedroom includes generous built-in storage, leaving the rooms themselves open and adaptable. One bedroom works beautifully as a dedicated home office, while another, with its trundle bed, provides flexible guest accommodation.Downstairs, the open kitchen, dining and living areas flow easily into one another, with warm Mexican details, colorful tile and exposed brick adding character. Just beyond the kitchen, a light-filled enclosed atrium creates a natural transition between indoors and the mature garden. Even from inside, the garden remains part of the view, while the atrium offers a...
