Just one block from Ancha de San Antonio and approximately a ten minute walk from both the Parroquia and Parque Juárez, Casa Luna Blanca combines a highly desirable San Miguel location with sophisticated interiors, private outdoor living, and exceptional architectural character.Beautifully appointed and exceptionally well maintained, this two bedroom residence feels polished yet deeply inviting. Restaurants, cafés, shops, markets, and the everyday conveniences of San Antonio are just steps away, while the heart of Centro is easily reached on foot. It is a location that allows you to enjoy San Miguel as it was meant to be enjoyed, with much of the city simply outside your door.From the moment you enter, the quality of the interiors is apparent. Substantial wood beams, graceful arches, distinctive patterned floors, custom cabinetry, dramatic lighting, and carefully selected finishes give the home a layered sense of character. Deep tones of wood and richly detailed surfaces are balanced by crisp plaster...
