Modern Hacienda on One Hectare: Earth, Stone, Endless Views & Room to GrowDescription: This one-of-a-kind country estate has 535 m^2 of handcrafted construction on a full hectare (10,000 m^2) of open high-desert land, with wide views to the mountains. It's built for someone who wants space, quiet, and a home with real character.The house blends rustic materials with clean, modern lines. Earth-block walls, hand-laid natural stone, reclaimed timber lintels and solid wood doors sit alongside polished concrete floors, smooth concrete ceilings, black steel details and Edison-bulb lighting. The result feels warm and grounded, but still contemporary.The heart of the home is a long, open great room for living and dining. A dramatic stone feature wall anchors one end, and full-height sliding glass doors open onto a covered terrace overlooking the land. There are five generous bedrooms, each with its own full bathroom. Those bathrooms feel like a spa: stone walls, walk-in rain showers behind glass, vessel sinks on solid...
