Seamless Architectural Design

ID: 2483 Price: $ 455,000 USD

You can always tell when a home has been architecturally designed... one room seems to flow seamlessly into the next, all the small details work together to create tasteful impact, and of course, well-chosen materials combine for an overall effect of beauty and charm. This classically styled spacious 3-bedroom home is no exception. It's one level living, and includes loggia, garden with fountain, multiple bovedas and cantera accents. Located a quick walk to the Botanical Gardens in a quiet, residential neighborhood, it's close enough to walk into town but away from the crowds and noise.
