Los Labradores, about 20 minutes from the center of San Miguel, has a community pool, cinema and cafeteria. There is also handy shuttle service between Los Labradores and downtown San Miguel.

The soaring double height entryway leads into a light-filled downstairs with carved fireplaces in both the living and dining room, which are a cozy treat on chilly nights. As you enter the living room you see a stunning hand-crafted stone wall and views to the mountains in the distance. The kitchen is very large with a center island that is perfect for entertaining.
