Incredible price for this lovely Casita. The beauty of this house and the location will capture your attention for sure. Yes, it is a beautiful apartment, located at 3 blocks from the main square and with the plus that it's at the first or ground floor. There are five apartments in the building all of them very independent one from each other. For long term the price just includes water. The other services are paid by the tenant. There is a common laundry room, so the maid can do your laundry with a tip....
